Trick or treat hours set, tips listed for safe Halloween fun

Ghosts, goblins and assorted other characters will be out in force Wednesday night, celebrating Halloween.

In Hoopeston, trick-or-treat hours will be 5-8 p.m.

In Rossville, hours are 5:30-8 p.m.

Trick-or-treaters are urged to follow safety tips to make their evening more enjoyable. These include:

- Trick-or-treat only at homes with porch lights lit.
- Go only during designated hours.
- Make sure costumes, including masks, fit properly to allow children to move safely. If possible, use face paints instead of masks. Flat shoes will make walking easier and safer for children.
- Don't take shortcuts. Walk on designated walkways.
- Travel in groups. Parents or older children should supervise younger tikes as they trick-or-treat.
- Go to homes of people you know.

Library sets spooktacular four-day book sale

No tricks, but there will be lots of treats for book lovers of all ages.

Hoopeston Public Library is holding a four-day "Spooktacular" Book Sale from Halloween through Saturday, November 3.

Adult, youth and children's fiction and nonfiction titles will be available for $2 per page or three bags for $5. Some VHS tapes and audio books are available.

The sale will be in the lower level board room during regular library hours, 9:30 a.m.-8 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m. Friday and 9:30 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturday.

The library is located at 110 N. Fourth St.

• Inspect treats before eating. Discard any that look like they may have been tampered with.

• Be sure to keep candy and treats away from pets.

• Carry flashlights or light sticks.

Homeowners who welcome trick-or-treaters should also observe a few tips to make the evening safe for their young guests. These include:

• To keep homes safe for visiting trick-or-treaters, parents should remove from the porch and front yard anything a child could trip over such as garden
