Library starts Food for Fines program, sets free movie

Starting December 1, Hoopeston Public Library patrons may pay their library fines and help a good cause when the annual "Food for Fines" drive begins.

During December, the library will accept canned goods and nonperishable food items within their expiration dates, along with packaged household paper products as payment for fines. Each item or package donated will be worth $2 toward payment of fines. Some single items or packages may not qualify.

Donations are good for overdue material fines only; they will not go toward the cost of lost items or other library fees.

All items received will be donated to Grant Township Food Cupboard.

For more information, contact the library at (217) 283-6711.

The library will inaugurate the holiday season with a free movie at 2:45 p.m. December 5. Library staff selected an all time favorite, "Christmas with the Kranks" (PG). In the movie, the Kranks decide to skip Christmas altogether because their daughter is away from home. Yet when their daughter decides to come home from the Peace Corps, it causes an uproar. The Kranks try to celebrate the holidays at the last minute. With leading roles portrayed by Tim Allen and Dan Aykroyd, the zany storyline keeps the viewer smiling.

Because of limited seating, any student, 10 or older, or adult patron, is asked to pick up a ticket at the main desk from now until December 5. A ticket secures admission, as well as complementary popcorn and holiday refreshments.
