Public invited to 2013 Miss Hoopeston coronation Saturday

Miss Hoopeston 2013 will be crowned on Saturday, Jan. 5, 2013 at 3 p.m. at the Hoopeston Area High School auditorium.

The Hoopeston Jaycees are proud to announce the following young ladies as candidates for Miss Hoopeston 2013:

- Meagan Cade, 18, daughter of Rickie and Angie Cade
- Brooke Kinney, 18, daughter of Allen and Lisa Kinney

Computer hoaxes reported

Teresa Sollars, owner of The Computer Works, is reporting that some local people have been victim of computer hoaxes.

The first involved "the FBI" unlocking someone's computer and the second involved someone claiming to be from Microsoft who called to report a virus, then took remote control of the computer, then asked for money.

Neither Microsoft nor the FBI calls asking for payment for computer issues, Sollars said, advising people to take their computers to a reputable computer repair person.

Slate set for April city election

Hoopeston Ward 2 voters will have a contest to determine their alderman while the entire city has a choice for mayor.

Incumbent Mayor Bill Crusinberry hopes to retain his seat but is being challenged by Jeramy Dobkins. Ward 2 Alderman Carl Ankenbrand is running for his seat against challenger Charles Strawser.

Offices with no races include:

Ward 1: Joe Fell is running for a two-year term and
