Blue Devils to go pink Friday for breast cancer fundraiser

Bismarck-Henning High School boys basketball team will host its annual "Hoops for Hope" Breast Cancer Awareness game at home Friday against Schlarman.

Show support and help them paint the gym pink by wearing pink attire to the game!

Provena Regional Cancer Center was chosen as the recipient of money raised by cash donations, t-shirt sales, a 50/50 raffle and a bake sale.

New this year, fans can purchase pink ribbons that will hang in the school gymnasium and hallway..

Money raised helps pay for medicine, transportation and wound care for local breast cancer patients who cannot afford it.

The team will wear pink Nike uniforms that night in support of the cause. Tip-off is at 7p.m.

Holiday winner

Sandy Crabtree receives a new laptop from Brenda Judy, coordinator of the Hoopeston Cellular One store. Crabtree entered Cellular One's customer holiday promotion and won the grand prize of the laptop and a year of free home wireless internet service from all 12 company stores. An Android wireless tablet was awarded by each local store with Miranda Garriott winning the tablet in Hoopeston.
