Free screening for children

The Eastern Illinois Shrine Club, partnering with GAO Grotto and Ambucs, will sponsor a free screening clinic for children up to age 18 who may benefit from the specialized services provided by Shriners Hospitals for Children. The hospitals provide care for orthodontic conditions, cleft lip and palate, spinal cord injuries and burns.

The screening will be held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. April 20 at GAO Grotto, 2400 Denmark Rd., Danville. Acceptance as a patient is based on medical need regardless of a family's ability to pay. For more information, call event chairman Russ Burgin, (217) 446-8690.

County wind committee to meet

The Vermilion County Wind Advisory Panel will reconvene at noon Thursday in the third floor conference room of the County Board office of the courthouse, 6 N. Vermilion St., Danville.

The panel will consider public comment received at Monday's public hearing at Potomac Grade School.

At that hearing, attended by more than 100 people, Vermilion County Board members heard from residents about the existing wind farm ordinance, particularly whether the board should increase the distance turbines should be built from property lines and other structures.

Under current law, turbines must be set back 1,200 feet from primary structures, such as houses.

A representative from Apex Wind Energy, owner of the Hoopeston Wind Project, said increasing the setback could stop further development.

Public comment will not be accepted at Thursday's meeting.

HPL offers kids’ program marking Smart Money Week

You’re never too young to learn how to use your money wisely.

Area children ages 5 and up are invited to do just that in celebration of Money Smart Week at Hoopeston Public Library. The “Kids Read” story hour will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, April 20 at Hoopeston and several other public libraries around Vermilion County and Illinois.

Local kids will enjoy a reading of the Berenstain Bears’ book “The Trouble with Money”, a craft project, other activities and a snack. There will also be free stuff to take home.

This one hour event is designed for children ages 5-12. Parents are also invited to attend. Space is limited, so participants are asked to sign up in advance at the Library, or by calling 217-283-6711.
