Stabbing continued from other side merous stab wounds to his face, neck and upper body. The unidentified victim thought he was walking in the 800 to 1000 block of North Market when three white males got out of an older model blue vehicle and struck him in the head, causing him to lose consciousness. When he regained consciousness, he was covered in blood and discovered he had been stabbed several times. He was taken to the hospital by an unknown person and dropped off. He was transferred to Carle Foundation Hospital, Urbana.

Police are asking for help in the case, including the identity of the person who took the victim to the hospital. Anyone with information is asked to call the police department at (217) 283-5196.

In other police news:

Brian Dry, 34, of Oak Park, was arrested at 2:11 p.m. Thursday in the 600 block of South Eighth Ave. He was charged with license required when soliciting and was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Tonya Edwards, 36, of Hoopeston, turned herself in to police at 12:25 a.m. Friday. Wanted on a Vermilion County warrant, she was released on $375 bond with a new court date.
