Honoring those who served

Bryce Vorick, 14, a member of Troop 118, places flags on a veteran's grave Tuesday at Floral Hill Cemetery. Vorick was among those who decorated veterans' graves for Memorial Day services. This was Vorick's first year of placing flags on graves. He said about 1,200 veterans would be so honored.

'Have Book, Will Travel' at library Summer Reading Club

You can travel across the country, around the world or back in time through the pages of a book. Local children will be able to do just that when Hoopeston Public Library kicks off its 2013 Summer Reading Club, "Have Book, Will Travel."

The program runs June 10-July 5 with activities for kids from preschool through sixth grade. All ages are invited to the kick-off event at 2 p.m. Monday, June 10, which will feature entertainment by The Academy for the Performing Arts, and a special speaker.

Programs especially for grades 3-6 will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesdays. Grades 1-2 will attend at 2 p.m.

Thursdays and kindergarten and preschool youngsters will have programs at 10:30 a.m. Fridays. Featured activities will be presented by the Museum of the Grand Prairie, Vermilion County Farm Bureau, ECIS Model Railroad Club and University of Illinois Extension.

Free movies for all ages will be shown at 2 p.m. Mon-See LIBRARY on other side

Help HPL

Please send us a postcard!
The theme for this year's Summer Reading Club is "Have Book, Will Travel". To help decorate the children's room and get kids excited about traveling, we are asking friends and followers to send us a picture postcard from wherever you are. Feel free to share this post with your friends and family, and let's see how many postcards we can get and where they come from!
