Free teen movie, book sale going on at Hoopeston library

Hoopeston Public Library will offer a movie at 2 p.m. Monday, Oct. 14, to kick off Teen Read Week. The theme for the week is "Seek the Unknown."

The newly-released movie will be for kids in grades 7-12. It offers a great plot and action-packed scenes. When the crew of the Enterprise is called back home, they find an unstoppable force of terror from within their own organization. Captain Kirk leads a manhunt to a war zone world to capture a one-man weapon of mass destruction.

The movie and refreshments will be free.

As the library readies for Teen Read Week, it's offering patrons a chance to stock their bookshelves for winter reading with a fall book sale.

ter reading with a fall book sale.

Thanks to many generous donations, the book sale room is full of a large variety of hardback and paperback fiction and nonfiction books for adults and children, as well as an assortment of VHS movies and some other, interesting surprises.

Everything is priced at $2 per bag or three bags for $5. The sale will run during regular library hours, 9:30 a.m.-8 p.m. Monday-Thursday; 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m. Fridays, and 9:30 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturdays.

For more information on these programs, call the library at (217) 283-6711. The library is located at 110 N. Fourth St., Hoopeston.

Hoopeston Jaycees October activities not for faint of heart

Hoopeston Jaycees have full month of scary activities as projects for the fall season.

Leading the list is the Tower of Terror haunted house, located in the Willdon Building in downtown Hoopeston.

The haunted house will be open from 7-11 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays and 7-10 p.m. Sundays, October 11-13, 18-20 and 25-27. It will also be open from 6-8 p.m.

during the October 29 Spooktacular and on Halloween, October 31.

Admission to the haunted house is $5.

On October 25, the Jaycees will hold a Halloween Bash costume contest and party, featuring the Brat Pack. The event will be held from 8 p.m.-12 a.m. at McFerren Park and has a $10 entry fee.

Jim L. Wisecup, 45, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 5:58 p.m. Monday to an altercation in the 600 block of West Main. He was charged with battery on a complaint from a 40-year-old Hoopeston man and was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Letters to the Editor

Who are the winners?

I am writing in regards to the $100 winners of the Music Boosters Calendars.

Some time ago they use to have the winners on WHPO and, I believe, Just The Facts and The Chronicle. Nice to see who they were.

Court Dispositions

August 1, 2013

Donald Underwood Jr., Hoopeston, two assault cases dismissed.

September 5

Kareem Marshall, Hoopeston, pleaded not guilty to general nuisance; trial October 3.

Carrie Gray, Hoopeston, failed to appear for general nuisance, found guilty by default; sentencing October 3.

Carla Nunez, Hoopeston, pleaded guilty in two cases regarding owner's duties, fined $230 in each case; status hearing November 7.

Esther Tetrault, Hoopeston, initial appearance rescheduled to October 3.

Gloria Colunga, Hoopeston, pleaded not guilty to two cases of cruelty to animals prohibited, fined $180; status hearing October 3.

Jaycees continued from other side

The final offering is the downtown Spooktacular, to be held from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 29. Various downtown businesses will have trick-or-treat goodies for youngsters. A pumpkin carving contest will be judged at 7 p.m., with costume contest judging at 7:30 p.m.

For information about the events and the Jaycees chapter, visit www.hoopestonjaycees.org.

If roses grow in heaven

Lord please pick a bunch for us.

Place them in our son's arms and tell him they're from us.

Tell him we love him and miss him and when he turns and smiles,

place a kiss upon his cheek

and hold him for awhile

Because remembering him is easy,

we do it every day

but there's an ache within our hearts

because we miss him every day.

Love & miss you, Joe
