Rain won't dampen Jaycees' Spooktacular

Rain forecasted for Tuesday night won't dampen plans for the Hoopeston Jaycees' Spooktacular. The event will run from 6-8 p.m. Tuesday in downtown Hoopeston. Main and Market streets will be closed to traffic for the safety of ghosts, goblins and princesses. Various businesses will have trick-or-treat goodies for youngsters. Sheridan's will have free hotdogs, provided by Star Chrysler, and Hoopeston Rotary will serve hot chocolate from Rotary Park west of Mr. B's. Hoopeston Junior Women's Club will hold games for kids, while Stacy Morgan will take free photos.; Kid-friendly spooks will be at Hoopeston Health and Fitness, 226 N. Market, which will also be the site of the pumpkin-carving contest at 7 p.m. The costume contest will be held at 7:30 p.m. In case of rain, judging will be held in the Jaycees' Tower of Terror haunted house in the former Willdon Building. The Tower of Terror will be open from 6-8 p.m. for the Spooktacular, and again on Halloween. Admission is $5 per person.

"Pain is inevitable - Suffering is optional"

We've got your back!

Chiropractic is a natural, non-invasive, and non-pharmaceutical approach to health care. It focuses on the relationship between the spine and the nervous system, and how this relationship affects the body's ability to heal itself. Chiropractic is a holistic approach to health care, and it can help you with a wide variety of conditions, including back pain, neck pain, headaches, and more.
