Missionary couple welcomed to New Beginnings ministry

Pastor Bruce McQuigg and the congregation of New Beginnings Church of Hoopeston are pleased to announce the addition of Drs. Mark and Patty Scrivener to the church's ministry team.

For more than 19 years, Dr. Mark was part of John Osteen's Lakewood Church in Houston Tex. Patty is from Scappoose Foursquare Church in Scappoose, Ore. Currently both are affiliated with World Ministry Fellowship headquartered in Plano, Tex.

MARK and PATTY SCRIVENER

With a combined total of 53 years experience in full-time ministry, the Scriveners are both graduates of the College of Global Deployment in Vancouver Wash. Each holds a doctors degree in Ministry of Missions.

The Scriveners have served as missionaries to Latin America and have begun works in many parts of the Americas including Mexico, Peru, Texas, Florida and Oregon. Recently they completed the first phase of renovations, repairs and new construction for a church at the City of God Orphanage in Jimenez, Coahuila, Mexico. In addition, during the past few years, they started a Spanish-language congregation in Odessa, Tex., which was turned over to a local pastor prior to them coming to Hoopeston. Dr. Mark speaks Spanish fluently.

Mark and Patty are excited about God's plan for Hoopeston and the surrounding area. Signs and wonders are natural outflow from their ministry; as the Book of Acts says "How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him." They are expecting an unprecedented time of spiritual growth in the community and in local churches as God pours out His Spirit on the area.

Pastored by Bruce and Nancy McQuigg, and assisted by Mike and Deb Robling, New Beginnings of Hoopeston is a local full gospel church currently holding Sunday services at 10 a.m. in the Hoopeston Area High School auditorium.
