Victim of shooting incident identified as Hoopeston man

The victim of a Sunday night shooting has been identified by Vermilion County Coroner Peggy Johnson.

Bruce L. Eldridge, 40, was found in a room at the Downtown Motel, 200 E. Main, after police received a report of shots fired there at 9:03 p.m. Sunday. The shots were fired in an adjacent room.

The case is being investigated as a homicide by Hoopeston Police, Vermilion County Sheriff's Department and the coroner's office, Johnson said.

Hoopeston police are releasing few details of that investigation. According to Chief Mark Drollinger, a person of interest was questioned in connection with the shooting and is cooperating.

Mr. Eldridge, known as "Big Bruce," formerly of Rossville, is survived by his wife, Jennitta, mother Janey Mertz, of Rossville; father, Marvin Eldridge of Meza, AZ.; three sons, Marvin, of Clinton, Ind., and David and Allen of Marion, Ohio; two sisters, Rose Kiser and Christina Gossett, of Rossville and one brother, Anthony Mertz, of Joliet.

Visitation will be 4 p.m. until the 6 p.m. celebration of his life Thursday at Brown-Alkire Funeral Chapel, Hoopeston. He will be cremated.

Memorials are suggested to the family.
