DACC Ag Day to feature displays, farmer's price lunch

Danville Area Community College Ag Club, with the support of area agricultural organizations, businesses and individuals, takes this opportunity to announce Ag Day 2014. Children and adults, including farmers, will find a variety of events available to them on Thursday, April 10 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the DACC campus.

A special feature of the day is a barbecue luncheon that will be served from 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. in the Mary Miller Gym. Carry-out lunches are not available.

The luncheon will consist of a pork barbecue sandwich, applesauce, baked beans, potato chips, and milk or Pepsi and will be served for 50¢—the price the farmer usually receives for these products after producing and selling them. Additional donations are gladly accepted.

The lunch is served by the DACC Ag Club, DACC students and staff, and local FFA chapters.

Other items of interest during the day include a barnyard petting zoo, pedal tractor pulls for children, tractors and farm equipment displays, and a tour through the DACC Greenhouse.
