Free workshop to determine who gets Grandma's pie plate

Almost everyone has personal belongings, such as pictures, a baseball glove or a yellow pie plate that are special to them.

- What happens to your personal belongings when you die?
- Who decides who gets what?
- How can these decisions be made during your life-time?

These and other questions will be discussed at the workshop "Who Gets Grandma's Yellow Pie Plate?"

The free workshop will be held from 12:15-1 p.m. Friday at Hoopeston Multi Agency, 206 S. First Ave.

Anyone who would like a meal during the program must call the Multi Agency at (217) 283-5544 by noon Thursday to reserve a meal from CRIS Senior Services. Meal cost is $2.75 for seniors and $3.50 for all others.

You do not have to purchase a meal to attend the workshop.

After three games in the morning session, fell to second place, 15 pins behind the leader, Bailey Delerose, of Crest Hills.

In the final three games of the day, Linder showed her determination as she rolled a fine 623 series, winning with a 1,967 total over Delerose's 1,897.

Linder, an eighth grader, is the daughter of Ron and Bridget Linder of Hoopeston.

The Hoopeston Area girls team also advanced to the finals, where they finished in sixth place. Team members were Linder, Rosie Gon-
