Hoopeston Rotary to show dyslexia film at Little Lorraine

Rotary Club of Hoopeston is providing a free showing of the acclaimed documentary, "Journey into Dyslexia," at the Little Lorraine Theater, April 24, 2014 at 6:30p.m.

The documentary profiles students and adults with dyslexia—difficulty with language skills, especially reading and spelling – who share their experiences of struggling in school and then succeeding in life.

Academy Award-winning filmmakers Alan and Susan Raymond use the film to examine the complexities of these differently structured brains and to debunk myths and misperceptions about dyslexia.

After the showing of this documentary, Dr. Dave Snook of Robinson Chiropractic will spend a few minutes leading the audience in a discussion about the positive effects of Chiropractic care on people with ADHD or other learning disabilities.

This free showing of "Journey into Dyslexia" was made possible through the joint efforts of area Rotarians, Robinson Chiropractic, and the Save the Lorraine Foundation.
