Hoopeston Cub Scout first ever to win Council Pinewood Derby race

Trenton Betka, from Hoopeston's Cub Scout Pack 118, took first place in the Prairielands Council Pinewood Derby Championships held April 12 at Judah Christian School in Champaign.

Betka's car had the fastest times overall beating out 108 pinewood derby competitors. This is the first time that a scout from Hoopeston's Pack has won the Council Pinewood Derby Championships.

The top six scouts qualify from each pack in the council to compete for the championships. They all come together for one day of racing and to determine the Council Champion.

Each scout raced his derby car down each of the 4-lanes of the track, the lowest score was thrown out and the other three were added. Betka's car finished with a time of 9.373 seconds beating out the second place car by only .01 of a second.

Hoopeston's Pack 118 is led by co-Cubmasters Chad Thomas and Dean Cloud.

Trenton is the son of Skip and Melissa Betka.
