City taking bids on LED park sign, civic center painting

McFerren Park is expected to get some nice upgrades, including and LED sign for announcements and a new coat of paint for the civic center.

Alderman Carl Ankenbrand, at Tuesday's city council meeting, announced bids will be sought for both projects. Information on both projects is available at city hall.

A third upgrade will come if the city receives grants for new playground equipment. Ankenbrand said Parks Superintendent Eugene Warner is applying for grants for new equipment for McFerren, Northside (Cheese) and Union Park.

Ankenbrand also reported on a successful opening day for the swimming pool. Season pass sales on Saturday totaled $3,700, up $1,200 over last year. Concessions sales on Saturday were $400, up $300 over last year.

Officials also discussed Saturday's opening of the new splash pad, which replaced the wading pool. Ankenbrand said a pool-goer told Chris Oyer, pool manager, Carl Ankenbrand officiates at one of several games played Saturday in a dodge ball tournament at Hoopeston Area High School. The event was a fundraiser for the school's marching band trip to the Chick-fil-A Bowl in Atlanta, GA.

Average Joes take top honors in HA dodgeball fundraiser

Men, women, boys and girls all came. They came in pink shirts, blue shirts, red shirts. Some came in aprons.

All had one thing in common: when it was done, they wanted to be champion of Saturday's dodge ball tournament at Hoopeston Area High School.

Ten teams participated in the event, a fundraiser for the marching band's trip to the Chick-fil-A Bowl in Atlanta.

The Average Joes took the overall championship after beating The Dodgefathers.
