Lauren Linares, Hoopeston Area Middle School student, prepares to read an essay at Thursday's school board meeting with a little encouragement from Principal Anne Burton.

HAMS student wins second place in bookstore contest

Mallory Houghton, honors English teacher Hoopeston Area Middle School, made such an impression on one of her students that she became the topic of an essay that took second place in a local competition.

Lauren Linares entered the "My Favorite Teacher" essay contest at the Barnes & Noble store in Champaign and received second place for her efforts. In her essay, Linares wrote about the impact Houghton has had on her, both educationally and personally.

The Barnes & Noble My Favorite Teacher program provides middle and high school students the opportunity to win prizes. See STUDENT on other side

Princess Party was huge success

Recently, the Hoopeston Jaycees, with their Miss Hoopeston Program, put on a Princess Party for little girls in the community who would like to dress up and participate.

This was a wonderful opportunity for families to bring their little girls to get makeup and hair done by the Pink Poodle and Unique Boutique, glitter tattoos by Unger's Jewelry, make crafts, play games, eat special princess cupcakes, and get their picture professionally taken with Miss Hoopeston 2014, Terra Scharlach by Adalay Photography.

I was overwhelmed with great comments from the moms and dads that attended with their little girls! I couldn't have done it without the Jaycee Ladies: Terra Scharlach, Brooke Allen, Callie Huffman, Taylor Sullivan, and Samantha Pugh. Not only were they helping but also Lisa Kenny, Kathy Judy, Connie Huffman, Tara Sullivan, Mr. Alex Houmes, and Penny Lithgow. I especially want to thank the Methodist Church for letting us use their facility.

I can't forget the Pink Poodle and Mr. B's for selling the tickets at their locations!

Thank you all for your hard work! I look forward to doing more wonderful events like this in the future!

Sincerely,

Ashley Dobkins
Hoopes-ton Jaycees Secretary

Fire Calls

Hoopes-ton Fire Department was called at 7:06 p.m. Monday to the 700 block of West Washington for a stove on fire. No injuries were reported.

Student continued from other side

tunity to tell their communities how much they appreciate their teachers. Teachers from grades 1 through 12 are eligible for nomination, and awards include cash prizes for the teachers and schools, NOOKs® and more.

The contest is broken down into local and regional winners, from which the Barnes & Noble Teacher of the Year is chosen.

Weather

Slight chance of thunderstorms today. High 85. Tonight, mostly cloudy. Low 63. Tomorrow, chance of storms. High 82, low 65.

monthly get-together at 1 p.m. Thursday at Rossville Fire station. The gathering is sponsored by RCO. Forget your troubles and come join us!

Reminders

- Hoopes-ton residents are asked not to blow grass clippings in the street when they mow. Clippings become caught in the sewer system and cause blockages which results in flooding.
- Hoopes-ton Water Department will flush hydrants Fridays during the summer, weather permitting.
