Police News

Octavius L. Stancle, 29, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 5:25 a.m. Friday in the 800 block of East Seminary. He was charged with criminal damage to property on a complaint from a 22-year-old Hoopeston woman who alleged he slashed a tire on her vehicle.

Stancle was released on a recognizance bond with a court date in Danville.

No tickets were issued in an accident at 11:04 p.m. Friday at Honeywell and Market.

Police said Daniel Rudisill, of Watseka, on a 2012

Kawasaki motorcycle, was stopped at the intersection when he popped the clutch and laid the motorcycle down. An ambulance was called but no one was transported, police said.

Heather M. Billingsley, 37, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 2 p.m. Saturday in the 600 block of East Penn.

She was charged with disorderly conduct on a complaint from a 40-year-old Hoopeston woman who al-

Lithgow takes second at
Indiana Cross Country Racing

Matt Lithgow took second place at the IXCR (Indiana Cross Country Racing) Side by Side Father’s Day Race June 14 at Medora, Ind. This is his third time racing with his Can-Am Maverick 1000 Xrs.

The IXCR Racing League sets up several race sites during the year for ATV, side by side and dirt bike racing. The next race, Mission Impossible, will be in Attica, Ind., on July 12-13.

Racers build points throughout the season to win the series championship. Last year, Lithgow took first place in the Junior B 22+ category. This year he is racing in both the side by side and ATV categories.

Lithgow and his FBI Racing Team are sponsored by Lithgow Motorsports in Hoopeston.

A 15-year-old Danville boy was arrested after he was found lying along the street at 9:26 p.m. Saturday at South Market at Elm. He was charged with possession of cannabis and released to a parent on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Twelve people were arrested after police received a loud party complaint at an apartment complex in the 500 block of East Penn. Arrested were Beau Anderson, 20, Richard Trask, 20, and Gage Winger, 20, all of Cissna Park; Trey A. Anderson, 18, of Rossville; Nicholas D.
