Rossville to host eighth annual Truck and Tractor Pull

Big wheels will be turnin' Friday night for the eight annual Rossville Grand National Truck and Tractor Pull.

The pull, in Christman Park, will begin at 6 p.m. and is expected to be a fast-moving event. With two sleds, vehicles are going up and down the track ever two minutes or so.

The pull will have three classes - National Tractor Pullers Association (NTPA), Illiana Pullers Association (IPA) and local classes - with classifications in each.

NTPA classes include GN Super Stock Diesel, GN light Unlimited Modified Tractors, Light Pro Stock and Super Farm.

Winners in each NTPA class earn points that count towards a national winner, said Robert Danner, one of the event's organizers.

IPA classes are Pro Stock 4X4, Pro Farm Tractors, N/A Tractors, Farm Stock Tractors and 2.6 Diesel Trucks.

Local classes include 6500# Antiques, 14000# Off The Farm Tractors, Open Diesel Trucks and 19500# Semis.

NTPA will lead off pulling at 6:30 p.m., followed by IPA, Antiques, Off the farm tractors, Open Diesel and

HPL to showcase Clayton's photo series, "Mother Dreams"

Hoopeston Public Library will showcase selections from the "Mother Dreams" photography series by Katherine Crouch Clayton. A lover of grit and grain and everything imperfect, Clayton is a shoot-from-the-hip photographer.

She began her self-portrait "Mother Dreams" series three years ago, using a combination of pinhole and zone plate digital photography. She creates dream-like and often haunting visual narratives, filled with both fact and fiction.

Clayton's fine art work has been shown in galleries across the country, including A. Smith Gallery, Keirnan Gallery, Newspace Center for Photography, F-Stop Magazine, Vermont Photography Workplace and Minneapolis Center for Photography. Her images have also been published in The Sun, a literary print magazine.

Her work will be displayed until September 2.

The library is located at 110 N. Fourth St., Hoopeston. For more information, call (217) 283-6711.
