As acting director Chalmers Flint looks on, James "Fuzzy" Goodrum, Hoopeston Multi Agency van driver, checks out the wheelchair lift on the agency's new van that was delivered Monday.

New Hoopeston Multi Agency senior van delivered Monday

"Where is it?"

Susan Redden shuffled papers, while keeping an eye on the clock and the window through which the Multi Agency parking spaces were visible.

"Where IS it?," she asked, a scant few seconds later.

Police News

Karen K. Relation, 37, of Hoopeston, was ticketed after an accident at 12:24 a.m. Sunday at East Main and Market.

Police said Relation, in a 1999 Buick LeSabre, was southbound on Market. She allegedly failed to stop at the intersection and hit a 1999 Subaru Outback, driven by Christopher Hammel, of Sheldon, then left the scene.

Relation was later located and was charged with leaving the scene of an accident, disobeying a stop sign, failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident and operation of uninsured motor vehicle.

No injuries were reported.

A 64-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 5:43 a.m. Sunday that neighbors saw someone going through her vehicle in the 400 block of South Fifth St. Police were unable to find the suspect after canvassing the neighborhood.

The woman reported that change was missing from her vehicle.

Van continued from other side

“It” is the Hoopeston Multi Agency’s new 2014 Elkhart van, delivered Monday from Midwest Transit in Kankakee.

The van replaces a 2006 model and has improved equipment that will make loading and unloading passengers quicker and easier.

The wheelchair lift works more quickly than the old one. Van driver James “Fuzzy” Goodrum said it will be
