Police News

Shane E. McCarty, 28, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 5:10 p.m. Sunday in the 700 block of South Fifth St. He was charged with residential burglary and criminal damage to property over $500 on a complaint from a 70-year-old Hoopeston woman. She alleged McCarty entered her home by kicking in and damaging a door, then removed several items.

Officers allegedly witnessed McCarty loading the items at another location and was arrested. He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

The woman identified the property as hers, police said. An employee of Casey's General Store, 115 E. Orange, reported at 3:37 p.m. Monday that the driver of a red or maroon van failed to pay for gas.

Zachary T. Garman, 22, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 7 p.m. Monday at McFerren Park. He was charged with disobeying police after allegedly harassing food vendors for food, being banned from the park, then reentering it. He was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Ryan Nosler, 19, and a 16-year-old girl were each charged with disobeying police at 7:29 p.m. Monday at McFerren Park, after allegedly refusing to leave the park after being asked several times.

Each was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court. The girl was released to a parent.

A maroon Huffy bicycle was claimed by the owner Tuesday.

Fire Calls

Hoopeston Fire Department was called at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday to the 700 block of Scott Dr., for an activated carbon monoxide detector, which was found to be faulty.
