Dinner, death served up to raise funds for Lorraine work

Dinner and death will be served up to raise funds for Save the Lorraine Foundation.

"Dramatic Demise," about a film director, crew and actors filming a horror story, will be held November 15 at Hoopeston American Legion, 502

Dramatic Demise
A Murder Mystery Dinner Event
Presented by: Save The Lorraine Foundation

E. Penn.

The audience-interaction event will feature five to 10 actors from the Champaign Urbana Theatre Company, who assume character roles. Actors mingle with guests through the dinner, conversing with guests and each other. Guests are encouraged to snoop, eavesdrop and be nosy! They may witness arguments, secret liaisons, notes passed, deals done, loves lost and found, agreements made and broken.

After dinner, one (or maybe more) of the characters will "die." An investigator takes charge to question suspects and find the murderer with the help of guests.

Guests may be as involved as they like and are encouraged to invent their own roles and relationships to the cast.

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m., but guests are encouraged to arrive earlier.
