HA wrestler Ezra Elliott to compete in Iowa for national title

Hoopeston Area wrestler Ezra Elliott will compete in Iowa on October 25-26 for a national title.

He will compete in the Preseason Nationals on the Northern Iowa University campus in Cedar Falls, competing in a 70-plus man bracket with wrestlers from 36 states.

Elliott, in the seventh and eighth grade division at 91 lbs., is among wrestlers who are qualifiers, placers, and champions in their states, respectively.

Since the end of last wrestling season, Elliott and his teammates have been putting their time in on the wrestling mat.

Last season, he and Adam Colunga both placed sixth at the Senior Division at state, which is seventh and eighth grade, along with Abel Colunga placing seventh at the Midget State Championships, which is third and fourth grade.

After state, Elliott, Adam Colunga, Brody Powell and Tyson Coon were selected to wrestle for Team Illinois Bronze, coached by Logan Patton, Hoopeston Area head high school and youth coach. This team duals national teams from Iowa, Kentucky, New Mexico, Indiana, Texas, Ohio, and Nebraska.

Along with wrestling for Team Illinois, Hoopeston Area wrestlers competed at the Iron Sharpens Iron team camp. The youth team, led by Elliott, along with Powell, Cole Gaddis, Coon, and Colton Hughes, brought home the championship, winning the middle school division.

But these boys weren't satisfied. Elliott, Gaddis, and Coon wrestled that weekend at the Midwest Nationals. All three boys came home with medals as Elliott took second, Gaddis took third, and Coon took fourth.

To kick off this season, Elliott looks to start with a bang. He has his sights set on bringing home a medal

Despite early penalty, Buffalos stomp Cornjerkers, 47-6

It was homecoming for at Schlarman High School Friday night and the game got started with a real twist.

Georgetown was issued an un-sportsman like penalty when they stuck the their flag in the ground at midfield. The Cornjerkers were given great field position, but after a penalty for motion moved them back, the air went out of their sails.

Coty Coon carried the ball four times for eight yards and freshman Devon Nosler was the leading rusher on the night with 15 yards on three carries.

With the game at halftime Buffalos 40-0, the Cornjerkers regrouped and played a much better second half and only allowed on more score from the Buffalos. The offense got moving the ball and you started to notice the line pick things up. Gavin Gard was 10 of 22 passing for 168 yards and one touchdown that went for 34 yards to Gavin Stines.

Stines led the team in receiving yards with 96 yards on five catches. Most of the night Georgetown had two guys' eyes on him. Kevin Lane had one reception for 11, Coty Coon caught two dump off passes for 10 and Brock Watson had two receptions for 51 yards. Defensively Coty Coon had nine tackles on the night along with Jacob Varns.
