very pleased with what’s been put into place.”

Members of the HCA core committee plan to make a presentation to the council at least quarterly to update the group on progress made.

In other business:

- JoHanna Gash, representing New Beginnings Church, announced the church will hold an open house on December 13 and asked permission to have a lighted sign outside the church for a week prior to the event. That permission was granted.
- Heard from engineer Mike Streff, with Farmsworth Group, said work on the inside of the elevated water storage tank is nearly done and may be completed by the end of the week. Also, media was added to the third sand filter, which may be completed next week.
- Heard from Alderman Randy Carter about Light Up the Park on Saturday. “It was a huge success,” he said. “It was almost overwhelming.” Saturday evening, 1,250 cars went through the park to view the lights and the school bus which shuttled youngsters for the Magical Express made 10 trips, he said.
