Health center receives innovation nod for safe sex program

Carle Hoopeston Regional Health Center was recently honored by the Illinois Critical Access Hospital Networks (ICAHN) in the category of "Innovation of the Year."

The "Innovation of the Year" award was designed for hospitals to showcase an innovative idea. Once it is implemented at the hospital, it should also initiate a new approach to patient relationships, process flow or life-safety improvement, motivation and inspiration of staff, or a successful community project.

Carle Hoopeston was nominated for and received honorable mention recognition for its safe sex education program and collaboration with Hoopeston Area High School.

Connie Catron, Advanced Practice Nurse for Carle Hoopeston Regional Health Center, accepted the honor during a ceremony held November 18 at the Crowne Plaza in Springfield. Carle Hoopeston was one of the

HPL celebrates ‘Frozen,’ thanks community for support

●Hoopeston Public Library will celebrate “Frozen Day” Monday, Dec. 29, with free children’s activities based on the hit Disney movie.

From 10-11 a.m., ages 4-12 can enjoy a variety of Frozen-themed crafts and games. At 2 p.m., there will be a sing-a-long of hit songs from the film, followed by a showing of the movie.

For both events, kids are invited to wear their Frozen outfits or bring along their favorite Frozen friend.

Children are welcome to attend one or both activities. Ages 8 and under should be accompanied by an adult.

For more information, call the library at 217-283-6711.

●HPL would like to thank the community for their generous support of their “Making Christmas Brighter” campaign. These donations enabled the library to provide books for Grant Township’s Miracle Tree and Santa Cares Too programs for area children.
