DACC literacy volunteer training to be held at Church of God

Help an adult learn to read. Danville Area Community College Reader's Route presents The New Volunteer Tutor Training for those who want to help adults learn to read or do math better.

The New Volunteer Tutor Training will be offered on Saturdays, January 24, 31, and February 7, 2015 from 9:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. at the Hoopeston Church of God, 1004 East Orange St., Hoopeston. Space is limited to 12 participants.

To register, please call DACC at (217) 443-8785 or call the First Church of God in Hoopeston at (217) 283-9330.

Vermilion County Rape Crisis Center sets volunteer training

Vermilion County Rape Crisis Center (VCRCC) is looking for caring people with an interest in helping those affected by sexual violence.

Volunteer opportunities include manning the 24 hour hotline where volunteers will respond to crisis calls and providing assistance and advocacy at the emergency room for victims who seek medical attention.

Other opportunities to help include fundraising, community and prevention education and court advocacy. Volunteers choose the times that they are available to help.

In addition to completion of the 40 hour training, volunteers must be 18 years of age, pass criminal and DCFS background checks, have a valid driver's license and reliable transportation, and telephone service.

VCRCC volunteer training will be held February 19 through March 12. It is held on two Saturdays and Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The 40 hour training provides information that will assist volunteers in providing crisis intervention and medical advocacy to victims of sexual abuse/assault.

For more information or to register for training, please call Jennifer McGrown at VCRCC at (217) 446-1337 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

A Peachy time

Hoopeston Area High School Marching Cornjerkers, along with chaperones, pose during the band's trip to the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on December 31 in Atlanta, GA. The group earned a second place award at the event and brought home three trophies and a plaque for their efforts. The community helped the band achieve its goal of going to Atlanta by taking part in fundraisers to pay for the trip.
