Hall of Fame recipients named, help sought in contacting

The list of 2014 inductees into the Hoopeston Area Athletic Hall of Fame have been announced, and a little help is requested in contacting some of them.

Inductees include the 1975 track and field team, which came in second at State; the 1975 men's 4 X 200 relay team, which were state champions; Tom McBride, Doug Eckert and John Timmons.

Help is needed in locating contact information for the following remaining members:

John Burke of the relay team.

The state runner-up team and winner of eight major meets include: Arlin Rudin, Ernie Linares, Dave Cook, Marv Gudeman, Merle Eisenman, Steve Ault, John Crose, Tim Goodrum, Mark Metz, Pat Young, Barry Field, Steve Troxel, Terry Mullen, Kevin Kriebs, and Bill Pence. Assistant Coach Bob Doty.

Anyone with contact information is asked to contact Scot Vogel at vogelsd@hoopeston.k12.il.us or call 217-283-6660.

The induction ceremony will take place Friday, Feb. 13, between the varsity girls and varsity boys games against Salt Fork. A reception in the high school cafeteria will follow the ceremony to allow the public to meet the new members.

The Hall of Fame was established in 2011, when a group of dedicated people with ties to Hoopeston Area High School established the honor to acknowledge those who helped bring recognition, honor and distinction to the school. These accomplishments and contributions to Hoopeston Area athletics may be in the form of outstanding achievement or service. Those who have made a lasting impact as athletes, coaches, team members or special contributors are eligible for consideration for induction.

The committee that decides which nominees will be included in the Hall of Fame consists of Scot Vogel, HA athletic director; Principal Larry Maynard; former AD and coach Jim Matta; former coaches Quintin Ryder, Jim Richards and Beth Carpenter; former athlete and community member Dick Read; and Chris Small and Steward Coffman, members of the school board's extra-curricular committee.

Letters to the Editor

Thanks for remember seniors

A hearty, huge thank you to all who made Christmas a little brighter for seniors. So many donated time, effort and funds for a surprise at our doors and the Christmas Day dinner at the Multi-Agency and delivery for those who could not be there.

God bless you all richly.

'Free' college will be paid by someone

President Barack Obama recently announced his proposal to make two years of community college "free" for all "responsible students." According to various news reports, this government program would cost $60 billion. It is hard to believe that the Republican controlled Congress would approve adding another costly federal program when we're drowning in debt and many of them are looking to make significant budget cuts.

There's no such thing as a "free" government program. Nothing is ever "free". "Free" is just a slick marketing term to help hide tax and spend addictions.

These types of proposals reveal that politicians view taxpayers as nothing but unlimited sources of revenue footing the bill for their agenda. The truth is, far too many public officials continue to expand the size and spending of government but are woefully inconsiderate about the debt they continually pile on working families and their children.

Bottom line: Taxpayers cannot afford Obama's "free" college proposal.
