Four law enforcement departments worked together to find and arrest a Hoopeston man last week. Police were called Tuesday about a distraught person who was believed to be armed with a pistol. After being treated at Carle Hoopeston Regional Health Center, Michael L. Bailie, 40, was taken to the Iroquois County jail by Iroquois authorities on preliminary charges of aggravated unlawful use of a weapon/vehicle; DUI; seat belt required/driver; and transportation/carry of liquor/driver.
