Library to offer free resumé support days February 18, 25

The first step to getting a good job is creating an effective resume. Hoopeston Public Library wants to help area residents who may need some help in that area with two free Resumé Support Days.

From 2-5 p.m. Wednesdays, Feb. 18 and 25, local adults can visit the library and experienced staff members will assist them in using library computers to prepare a resumé. Each participant will receive one free copy of their resumé, and will also have the opportunity to print additional copies at a nominal cost. Participants can also save a copy of their resumé to take home, if they provide their own flash drive.

Those interested in creating a resumé should be prepared with the following information:

- Name, address, phone number and email address.
- Education history, including names and dates of any high schools and colleges attended; date of GED diploma (if applicable); and details of any special-

As jambalaya dinner nears, youth reflect on work trips

St. Anthony Youth Group and Friends, 32 strong, will travel to Dover, Del., in June for their 15th mission trip.

"We have never been to the camp in Dover" said Terra Scharlach. "But, I am sure it will be another escapade. We are thinking that the Chesapeake Bay may offer some interesting adventures."

According to Bill Goodwine, one of six chaperones, a goal of each trip is to provide a cultural experience unique to the area travelled as well as a mission/service experience. "We have done a lot of neat things over the years on our free day."

"The list is long," said Goodwine, "but what a trip it has been. We have been white water rafting in Colorado, a Rockies game in Denver, three different beaches on the east coast and Florida, Savannah Georgia and the historic squares, Charleston and its historic area, Washington DC. We have ridden trains, taken subways. The students could tell you many embarrassing stories. Sometimes it has been more of an odyssey than anything."

"As far as free day activities, I liked Memphis!" said Aly Nicholls. "The work projects were good and our free day was nonstop. I cannot believe everything we did. We toured Graceland, the Gibson guitar factory, ate and danced at BB Kings, walked Beale Street, took a musical bus ride where the tour guide played songs on a guitar while we toured the houses of the Memphis musicians. I got to play the tambourines while on the bus tour.

"New Orleans was my favorite," said Aaliyah Colunga. The 25 students joined 200 parishioners in church one Sunday morning. "The people on their feet swaying to the music, the arms in motion, and the 'amens' were all so genuine. We had broken up into twos and threes and sat all over the church rather than a pew by ourselves. We were totally immersed in the culture. The priest was fire and brimstone. After mass it seemed like the entire congregation hugged us. We felt so welcome."

"The free day in New Orleans was great too," said Rylee Martin. We had New Orleans Po Boys for lunch and rode the trolley down St. Charles St. We walked Bourbon Street at night, had dinner in the French Quarter and then went to Preservation Hall for New Orleans jazz."

"Two years ago I talked Bill into going to New York City from our camp in Lancaster, PA.," said Erika Samet. "We stopped in Philadelphia and saw Constitution Hall and the Liberty Bell, had Philadelphia hoagies for lunch, stayed all night at Mary Tselipsis' house (Hoopeston native and daughter of Dave and Julie Christine) in New Jersey. We took the train into New York City, the subway to Ground Zero, walked to China town (where Bill and Chris Umbanhowar bought "real" $30 Rolex watches), ate Chinese food, and then went to Times Square. We have a few stories to tell from that trip."

 Happy 4th Birthday Anna Schenk

According to Goodwine, it really is mainly a mission trip. "But people know all about that part of it. We thought it would be fun to share a different aspect of the trip here. We can tell you more at our Jambalaya Dinner on February 17."
