Sweethearts meet and eat

Scores of senior citizens attend Friday's Senior Citizen Sweetheart Banquet at Hoopeston Area High School.

Sponsored by the school's student council and Heritage Health of Hoopeston, the event featured a full turkey dinner, dessert and entertainment by high school soloists Maya Webber, Sara Houmes, Ashley Morgan and Holly Morgeson and the school's jazz band, directed by Patrick Brooks.

This was the 24th year for the banquet. Ashley Gondzur, student council sponsor, said 211 seniors made reservations this year, up from 174 last year. Guests were served by 60 student volunteers, said Gondzur, marking her fifth year overseeing the event. "It runs like a well-oiled machine," she said.

More important than running well, though, is the joy the event brings to area seniors, and to Gondzur herself. Saying she oversees many student council activities, "this is my favorite," she said.
