Library schedules tech, home school programs this week

Hoopeston Public Library will host a "Homeschoolers' Roundtable" at 7 p.m., Thursday, March 12.

For the many local parents ea who choose to home school their children, the public library can provide a wide range of resources and curriculum materials. The purpose of this meeting is to introduce families to the services available at the library, and to find out how the library can best serve the needs of home school parents and their children.

On Saturday, March 14, the library will host "Tech Day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Free assistance will be provided for people who need help operating their tablets (including iPads and Kindles), smart phones or other electronic devices. Help will also be available to set up email accounts or learn the basics of Facebook and other social media, and for those interested in accessing the library's online catalog, My Media Mall e-books and other online library services.

Library staff members and several other "tech-savvy" community members will be on hand to assist patrons who have questions or need help with their various devices.

The sessions is not a computer training class or repair clinic, but is designed for those who need basic assis-

A Modern Fairy Tale

Goldilocks' Porridge Shop

Goldilocks opened a porridge shop after visiting the Three Bears.

She wanted to increase business and advertised in the longest-running publication in the land. Then the bill came. "These prices are too high and nobody bought my porridge," she said. She advertised in another publication but noticed they piled up in doorways and saw dogs treating them as toys. "My ads are not being seen and no one is buying my porridge," she said.

Then she placed her ad in Just the Facts. Sales skyrocketed so she started a chain of porridge shops, bought a jet and lived happily ever after!
