U of I Extension to present health insurance info for seniors Health insurance questions have multiplied since the Affordable Care Act passed. Now that it is nearing full implementation, questions persist about "how does it affect me?" University of Illinois Extension Educator, Kathy Sweedler, will present "Health Insurance for People 65+" at noon Wednesday, March 18. This event is co-sponsored by University of Illinois Extension and Vermilion County Home and Community Association (HCE). Lunch is not provided.

Stock is one of top five in state

Hoopeston Area High School student Matt Stock advanced to FFA State Awards Day after District 4 Record Book interviews Wednesday night.

Stock's book that he advanced in was Ag Mechanics Repair and Maintenance Placement (working with Arends Hogan Walker in Hoopeston).

The honor makes him in the top five in Illinois.

"We hear many different things about the Affordable Act and it can be difficult to know what applies to us," says Sweedler. "We will discuss how ACA affects people 65 years and older. In addition, we will discuss op- See SENIORS on other side
