Dance to Your Own Beat

By BERTHA PARSONS

Those who know me know I pretty much say and do what I feel. My husband says, "Sometimes you are just too darned honest." Well, that's my beat! You usually know how I feel and why I feel the way I do.

Everyone should be able to dance to their own beat. Don't do what someone else expects of you; thinks you should do, or tells you to do merely because it is their wish. Dance with your heart, feel with your soul and be yourself.

April is a special month around our place as we celebrate two birthdays and our anniversary. I am blessed to celebrate with the man of my dreams for 52 years. All those years together as a couple, we each have our own dance and a different beat.

My baby girl celebrated her birthday the 18th. After high school she went against discouraging comments and was accepted at the Art Institute of Chicago. After a year she transferred to the University of Illinois, achieved a degree, then a masters in art. Though it didn't always make sense to us, she has always danced to her own beat; it seems to have worked well for her.

Our oldest son will celebrate his birthday on the 24th. He was a pretty good kid growing up and after 26 years in the military, he decided to become a lawyer, a dream of his. When he made up his mind he definitely was dancing to his own beat!

Sometimes we get scared, we are unsure of who we are. We question ourselves, should I do this or should I listen to others? I can't give you the answer or determination to leave your comfort zone and be who you want to be. However it's Birthdays and Anniversaries that make me dance to my own beat! Enjoy your Birthdays & Anniversaries; have fun, laugh; eat lots of cake and ice cream. Most important Dance to Your Own Beat! If you don't like where you are, you can always pick up your needle and move to another groove. Just keep dancing!

LOST & FOUND

On Tuesday, April 14, I attended the Fine Arts program at Honeywell Grade School at noon. I wore a turquoise/silver necklace and sometime during the program, unnoticed by me, it came off. I have retraced my steps several times with no success. The necklace has a sentimental value to me and I miss it terribly. If anyone should find it anywhere, I would surely appreciate it if you would contact me or turn it in to the school office. Thank you in advance.
