From the Blotter

A 27-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 1:30 p.m. Sunday that someone broke the rear window and dented the fender of his truck, parked in the 500 block of East Wyman.

Jimmy D. England, 32, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 10:20 p.m. Sunday in the 700 block of East Wyman.

He was charged with domestic battery on a complaint from a 38-year-old Hoopeston woman who alleged England battered her and another person.

England was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Brandi L. James, 35, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 10:31 p.m. Sunday to the 300 block of South Third St., on a non-related matter.

She was arrested on preliminary charges of aggravated battery, criminal damage to property under $500 and criminal trespass for an incident on an earlier date.

James was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Street corner drive to fund St. Anthony youth mission trip

St. Anthony Youth Group and friends will be on the street corners this coming Saturday collecting money in support of their 15th summer mission trip. This year the group is travelling to Dover, Del. to accept assignments to repair/paint homes, clean yards and help with child care, soup kitchens and homeless shelters.

According to Maya Cornelius, Hoopeston area young people will join forces with 300 other youth from many parts of the country and together complete 50 projects.

"We meet a lot of nice people" said Gizelle Mendez. "We form random work groups of 6 but none of us know each other at first," added Rylee Martin. "But by the end of the week we look at the house we painted and think 'WOW,' look what we did. And by then we are close friends. After we go home we keep in close touch via Facebook.

Mission trip veteran Ben Kinney said, "At night, we rejoin our own Hoopeston group for dinner, program and socializing. After that, we usually sleep in a big classroom with other groups. We get to know a lot of other kids that way, too."

Mmm, doughnuts

Those with a sweet tooth can get their craving satisfied while helping a youth organization.

St. Anthony Youth Group will sell boxes of fresh Krispy Kreme doughnuts from 3:30-6:30 p.m. Thursday at St. Anthony's parking lot, corner of Third St. and Lincoln.

Proceeds go to the group's mission trip to Dover, Del.
