From the Blotter

Michael Turner, 62, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 12:35 a.m. Thursday on a disturbance in the 400 block of East Honeywell. He was charged with aggravated battery on a complaint from a 41-year-old Hoopeston man who alleged he had been cut with a knife by Turner.

Turner was located, treated at Carle Hoopeston for injuries, then taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

A 13-year-old boy who was reported missing Wednesday was found at 1 p.m. Thursday and charged with burglary to auto on a complaint from a 50-year-old Hoopeston man. The boy was released to his guardian.

Jason A. Woods, 40, of Hoopeston, turned himself in to police at 11:20 a.m. Saturday. Wanted on a Vermilion County warrant for failure to appear/pretrial, he was released on $375 with a new court date.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at elm and Rt. 9.

Police said Scott L. Strawser, of Hoopeston, in a 2000 GMC truck, failed to yield and struck a 19967 Ford driven by Mary Ann Good, also of Hoopeston.

HPL kicks off Summer Reading Club with Monday movie

As the school year comes to a close, Hoopeston Public Library is gearing up for two months of summer fun for area children from ages 3 through sixth grade.

"Read to the Rhythm" is the theme for the 2015 Summer Reading Club and activities get underway in June with "Magical Musical Mondays". Events planned include:

- June 1: Movie Day with a screening of the new musical, "Annie"
- June 8: Kids Karaoke Day
- June 15: "Let's Make Musical Instruments" Craft Day
- June 22: Outdoor Fun
- June 29: Dancing Fun

All these activities will be held at 2 p.m. and no pre-registration is required. Children ages 8 and under should be accompanied by an adult.

Registration for the reading program begins June 1 and runs until July 6, when activities kick off with "Library Idol", a kids-only talent show, at 2 p.m. Pre-registration is also required to participate in the talent show, and details can be obtained at the library. From July 6-24, kids can read books, count their minutes read, and win a variety of prizes donated by local businesses. Special weekly age-group activities are planned for Preschool-K, Grades 1-2 and Grades 3-6. Everything winds up with a special program and awards on July 24 featuring "Chris McBrien's Irish Musical Traveler Show."

All activities are free. Brochures and complete details on all programs are available at the library, 110 N. Fourth Street, Hoopeston, or on the library's website, www.hooplib.org.
