Briefly

Resume help

Hoopeston Public Library will offer adults help with their resumes and job application support from 2-5 p.m. Wednesday. Library staff will assist adults in using library computers to prepare a resume. Participants will list their name, address, phone number, email address, education history, work history and references on their resumes.

Each participant will receive one free resume and may make additional copies at nominal cost or save a copy of the document to a flash drive provided by the participant.

For more information, call or stop by the library, (217) 283-6711, 110 N. Fourth St., Hoopeston.

The Gathering
