From the Blotter

Jose L. Cabrales, 38, of Hoopeston, turned himself in to police at 4:08 p.m. Thursday. Wanted on a Vermilion County warrant, he was released on bond with a new court date.

A wallet was found Thursday near Fifth St. and Main. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Dustin M. Goin, 31, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 7:52 p.m. Thursday in the 600 block of South Market. According to police, officers were about two blocks away when they heard loud music, allegedly coming from his home. He was charged with breach of the peace constituting disorderly conduct and was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

A 39-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 11:50 a.m. Saturday that someone took a blue and black pedal car from the 400 block of West Elm.

A 50-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 6:28 p.m. Sunday that his windshield was cracked the previous evening by an unknown person. The damage occurred in the 700 block of East Penn.

Hoopeston holiday

Hoopeston had a bang-up holiday between the Chamber's Fun in the Park on Friday and Saturday's first Cornathlon triathlon fundraiser for the Hoopeston Area Sports Boosters. Clockwise from left, youngsters and their parents line up for bounce house action Friday night; Sherry Klemme, Hoopeston animal control officer, along with Hoopeston Shelter volunteers and pets, enjoy the sun Friday; Ashely Dobkins and Betty Richards work the snow cone machine during Fun in the park; Phil Hollen, first in the pool, was first to grab his bike for the second leg of the triathlon; and left, triathlon organizer Scott Hudson talks with time Rich Stipp, left, as swimmers wait for the start of the first event.
