Seeking alderman

The City of Hoopeston is accepting letters of interest from anyone interested in filling the open Ward 3 seat.

From the Blotter

A 64-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 8 a.m. Tuesday that someone pried on her door in the 1200 block of Clover Lane.

Two people were arrested after a domestic incident at 5:10 p.m. Tuesday.

Shaunda K. Whitlow, 25, and Michael S. Winland, 29, both of Hoopeston, were each charged with domestic battery after police were called to Parkview Court.

Both were taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

To be considered, the applicant has to have been a resident of the ward for one year. Letters may be submitted at the administration office at city hall.

Power camp

Fellowship of Christian Athletes will hold a Power Camp for youngsters in grades 5-8. Camp will be August 6-8 at Hoopeston Area High School. Preregistration is required online at easternillinoisfca.org/camps/hoopeston-power-camp/. Cost is $30; scholarships are available. Kids receive athletic, spiritual and leadership training. Available sports include baseball, Basketball and soccer for boys and basketball and soccer for girls.
