A place of their own

Teen readers have a newly-redone space of their own at Hoopeston Public Library. The Teen Room underwent renovations, including a mural painted by the teens, a dry erase wall, tall bistro table, and youth-generated art for the walls. A TV and DVD/game system will be added soon. Renovations were made possible through a partnership with Do Something- Vermilion County, Team Hoopeston. Special thanks to Jacqueline Lacy, Tim Tutton, Melia McCord, HPL Director Tricia Freeland and many local teens for their efforts.

Court Dispositions

July 2

Jodi Tyszko, Hoopeston, pleaded guilty to restriction for burning, fined $180; status hearing September 3.

July 3

Jodi Tyszko, Hoopeston, pleaded not guilty to battery; trial August 6.

Pageant continued from other side with name on back; and the entry form. Entries are due by August 1.

Rehearsal will be held at 5 p.m. August 7 at the church.

The day of the pageant, contestants must arrive by noon.

Formalwear is the only attire required at this time. Contestants will need comfortable clothes for getting ready. Parents should bring snacks for youngsters, as it can be a long wait until the pageant starts.

Donations will be accepted at the door to go to the church for hosting the pageant.
