From the Blotter

A 17-year-old Hoopeston girl was treated at Carle Hoopeston Hospital after an accident at 2:14 p.m. Wednesday.

Allie M. Smith was taken to the hospital by a private car and treated after her 2010 Kia Rio was struck by a 2013 Buick Lacrosse, driven by Elnora F. Norton, 78, of Williamsport, Ind.

Police said Norton failed to yield at Third St. and East Penn and was ticketed for failure to yield at an intersection.

Mark A. Hewitt, 44, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 5:56 p.m. Wednesday to the 700 block of South Sixth Ave., for a report of a man screaming obscenities in the area.

Police said Hewitt failed to listen to commands and was charged with disobeying police.

He was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Tisha Lawson, 37, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 10:25 p.m. Wednesday for a welfare check for a woman passed out in a vehicle

John Greer class of '53 to donate $500 to HA brick project

The John Greer High School Class of 1953 met recently for their annual luncheon with the group having a great time. They were privileged to have as a guest Eileen Vines, teacher, here from Arizona, visiting her family.

Members requested Jim German preside over the business meetings. The class voted unanimously to make a gift of $500 to the Hoopeston Area CUSD #11 for a paver for the Brick Fundraiser.

Each classmate shared thoughts and experiences with the group. Greetings were acknowledged from Diane Tranbarger Green, Bonita Smith Tuggle, Robert Cloud, at Dollar Genera, 415 S. Dixie Hwy.

Police allege methamphetamines were found in Lawson's vehicle and charged her with possession of methamphetamine and delivery of a controlled substance.

She was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.
