From the Blotter

Two people were arrested after police were called at 3:15 p.m. Monday for a report of several people fighting in the lot at Hoopeston Dairy Queen, 715 W. Main.

Angelo Zamora, 30, and Stacey Lynn Halley, 35, both of Hoopeston, were each charged with aggravated battery and taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

The victim, a 24-year-old Hoopeston man, was taken to Carle Hoopeston Medical Center for treatment.

Several items found after the sweet corn festival have been turned in to po9lice, including an LG phone, sunglasses and keys.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at See POLICE on other side

Heading out

A water tank, used for the past several months to provide water pressure while Hoopeston's water tower was empty, is moved from Third and Seminary Thursday. The tank was one of three, with a combined capacity of 22,000 gallons, that was used to provide pressure while the water tower was being repaired and painted. The water tower was returned to service on Labor Day weekend.
