Bishop to visit church to mark education wing 50th year

First United Methodist Church of Hoopeston will receive a visit from United Methodist Bishop Jonathan D. Keaton, Episcopal leader of the Illinois Area of the United Methodist Church on Sunday, Oct. 18.

Bishop Jonathan D. Keaton has served as the Episcopal leader in Illinois since 2012. He has also served as Bishop of the Michigan Area, including Detroit and West Michigan Conferences and the Ohio East Conference.

Bishop Keaton is a graduate of Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary with a Master's of Divinity Studies and a Doctorate in Sacred Theology in areas of Homiletics and Sociology of Religion.

Bishop Keaton is visiting the church to mark the 50th anniversary of the groundbreaking of the Educational wing of the church. The Educational wing has housed many ministries of the church since 1965 and continues to be an important place of ministry of the church and the community of Hoopeston.

Bishop JONATHAN D. KEATON

First United Methodist Church of Hoopeston began in 1896 and has served the Hoopeston area faithfully. The church has a history of being mission-focused. Fifty years ago, the church found a need to build an Education wing to enhance the disciple making ministry.

At the 10:30 a.m. worship service, we will celebrate 50 years of ministry of the Education wing. Currently this wing is used for Sunday School, small groups, Feed My Lambs ministry, Cub scouts, ASP youth missions, UMYF, CAP afterschool program, summer worship and fellowship.

The building has also benefitted the community as an area of hospitality for queens during the Sweetcorn Festival and other community events. We celebrate those who had the foresight to build the Education wing for ministry.

All are welcome to join us for worship on Sunday mornings at 8:00 and 10:30 a.m. and especially for this celebrative worship at 10:30 a.m. on October 18.

And the winners are...

Thank you to everyone who submitted pictures for this year's contest.
