Quality incentives program offered to state ag producers

CHAMPAIGN—Illinois agricultural producers who want to improve natural resources and address concerns are encouraged to sign up for the Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) through the USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS).

Eric Gerth, Acting Illinois NRCS State Conservationist, announced that November 20, 2015 and January 15, 2016 will be the two EQIP application deadlines in Illinois. "Producers can sign-up for EQIP at any time throughout the year, but to compete for the upcoming funding periods; I encourage producers with resource concerns to submit an application by one of the application deadlines." Gerth explains.

Many applicants have interest in funding pools that address soil erosion and water quality issues on cropland. However, there are also funding pools for grazing land operations, confined livestock operations, organic

Fire Calls

Hoopeston fire and police departments were called at 12:12 p.m. Sunday to Foster Produce, 215 S. Dixie Hwy., for thick black smoke in the rear of the business.

Responders found employees were burning pallets and both departments returned to service.

From the Blotter

An 83-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 10 a.m. Sunday that someone damaged her vehicle in the 400 block of Euclid. An investigation is ongoing.

Matthew M. Minard, 19, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 4:30 p.m. Sunday to Fourth St. and Lincoln for a report of a man running in the alley with no shirt or shoes.

Officers located Minard at the intersection and a computer check showed he was wanted on a Livingston County warrant producers, and wildlife habitat improvement, just to name a few.

In addition to conservation practices, EQIP provides funding for the development of plans, such as Comprehensive Nutrient Management Plans (CNMP), Grazing Plans, Drainage Water Management Plans, and more.

Producers interested in EQIP should submit a signed application (NRCS-CPA-1200 form) to the local NRCS field office. Applications submitted by November 20, 2015 and January 15, 2016 will be evaluated by NRCS staff for the funding period submitted. The staff will work with producers to determine eligibility for the program and complete worksheets and rankings in order for the applicant to compete for funding.

EQIP is a voluntary conservation program available for agricultural producers. Through EQIP, NRCS will provide financial and technical assistance to install conservation practices that reduce soil erosion and sedimentation, improve water and air quality, and create wildlife habitat. For information on EQIP, contact the local NRCS field office or visit www.il.nrcs.usda.gov.
