HA Music Boosters to hold 2nd annual auction Saturday

Area residents can get a jump on holiday shopping—or pick up something for themselves—Saturday at the second Hoopeston Area Music Booster Benefit Auction.

Auction-goers may preview items beginning at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the McFerren Park Civic Center. The auction will be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

There will be something for everyone as auction items range from gift certificates (for Mr. B's Café, Hoopeston Shooting Range, Hoopeston IGA, Hoopeston Express Lube, The Chronicle, Okinawan School of Karate and others) to handmade crafts, a turkey fryer, hair care products, yarn and a pop up gazebo. Area businesses have donated gift baskets, including one from First Auction items include gift baskets, left, and décor items, like the above, done by Marta Pierce of P3:Paint, Pallets, Patterns.

Farmers Bank; a Rodan and Fields basket donated by Connie Catron; and a Movie Night gift basket.

If you're looking for food, the auction has you covered. Cakes, cheese cakes, cinnamon rolls, cookies, caramels and fudge will be among items up for sale.

There will also be a 50/50 drawing, cake walk, concessions and Pie in the Face.

Music groups will also perform throughout the day, with the John Greer chorus performing at 10:30, followed immediately by the John Greer concert band. The high school jazz band will perform at noon, followed at 12:30 p.m. by the school's show choir.

The last day for Miracle Tree and Santa Cares Too signups will be 9-11 a.m. November 12. No late signups will be allowed.

Veterans Day activities

Hoopeston Area will hold its annual Veterans Day ceremony at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the middle school gym. The Color Guard will go to Maple School at 10:30 a.m. for its Veterans Day program.

Hoopeston American Legion will open at 10 a.m. Veterans Day and will serve free chili and potato soup to everyone in honor of our veterans.

War museum announcements

Thank you to all veterans on Veterans Day with free admission to them and their families. In addition, we will open our new radio station and try to contact as many military installations as possible. The station features a restored Ten-Tec transceiver used in the first Gulf War and Collins equipment that was used in the Korean War; they both operate on the shortwave bands. Our FCC-issued call sign is W9VFW. Guests will be able to talk to the other stations that we make contact with.

Museum hours Wednesday are 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Normal hours are noon to 3 p.m. Tuesday through Friday; and 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Saturday.

Letter to the Editor

Christmas gift program for residents

As we quickly approach the holiday season, Heritage Health Therapy & Senior Care along with Iroquois Federal, are excited to tell you about “Senior Saints Giving Tree.”

The tree is located in the lobby areas at Heritage Health & Iroquois Federal. Businesses, friends and family can adopt a senior to make their Christmas a little more enjoyable. Our staff has worked very hard to identify items the senior could use and enjoy throughout the next year.

The process is very simple. Swing by Heritage Health or Iroquois Federal, select a card, purchase a gift off the residents’ wish list, wrap it and return it to the home.

We are asking that gifts be returned to the home by Wednesday, Dec. 16. You may also contact us and we will make arrangements to pick up your gift.

Thank you for remembering our residents this Holiday Season.

Sincerely,
Tanya McVicker
Heritage Health Therapy & Senior Care
