Hoopeston woman, two others arrested on drug charges

A Hoopeston woman was among three people charged Wednesday with possession of 20-100 grams of methamphetamine precursors in Champaign County.

Samantha Jo Morgan, 28, along with Brian Wernigk, 33, of Penfield, and Joshua Sadler, 20, of Paxton, were charged with the offense after police were called at about 8:30 p.m. Tuesday to the Dollar General store in Rantoul for possible shoplifters.

If convicted, Morgan and Sadler face sentences of six to 30 years in prison. Wernigk, who pleaded guilty to a meth offense, was facing up to 15 years in prison. That plea deal could be negated at his February 9 sentencing.

Hoopeston Fire Department was called at 6 p.m. Wednesday to the 500 block of West Maple for a carbon monoxide detector activation. No carbon monoxide level was detected by firemen and the owner was advised to replace the detector.
