HA agrees to one-year extension of Tri-Party Agreement

Hoopeston Area officials unanimously approved a one-year extension of the Tri-Party Deactivation Agreement Thursday night.

The agreement, among Hoopeston Area, Rossville-Alvin and Bismarck-Henning, covers issues related to students of the deactivated Rossville-Alvin High School, who now may choose to attend either of the other high schools.

R-A eighth graders will visit the middle school February 24 and their parents will visit that evening, prior to choosing which high school their children will attend.

Bismarck-Henning and Rossville-Alvin are currently in talks to form a cooperative high school.

In other business, the board:

- Held a public hearing prior to the regular meeting, on issuing Working Cash Fund bonds. The board plans to vote on the matter at its February 18 meeting.
- Heard from Supt. Hank Hornbeck that parents should make sure students are dressed warmly in cold weather and have a plan with their children in case of weather-related early dismissals.
- Discussed the ag auction that will be held January 30 at Hoopeston American Legion.

From the Blotter

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 3:29 p.m. Thursday at Wyman and Third St.

Police said a Hoopeston juvenile, in a 1996 Honda Civic, was westbound and failed to yield to Timothy Barney, of Catlin, southbound in a 2004 Chevrolet Express.

A 79-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 2:27 p.m. Saturday that someone tried to get into his home in the 100 block of South Fifth St., causing damage in the process.

- Learned the annual senior citizen Sweetheart Dinner will be February 12.

- Heard from high school Principal Larry Maynard, who will attend a March 7 job fair at the University of Illinois, held in conjunction with Eastern Illinois University, to recruit potential teachers.

- Approved Ciindy Perrotta's resignation as Maple aide, effective December 22.

- Hired Suzanne Boyer as high school head softball coach; Heather Cloud, middle school personal aide; Shannon Anderson, Maple personal aide; and Sarra Rigsby, high school personal aide.
