Challenges to presidential candidates may delay early voting

DANVILLE—Vermilion County Clerk Cathy Jenkins announced Friday that ongoing objections to several presidential candidates are not anticipated to be resolved by the State Board of Elections in time for ballots to be prepared and voting tabulators to be programmed for the opening of Vote By Mail and Early Voting on February 4.

Ballots and machines will be available no later than February 17 – the beginning of grace period registration and voting – by which time most challenges seeking to remove candidates from the ballot should have been decided and final ballot certifications issued by the State Board of Elections.

“It is possible that ballots may be available prior to February 17, and if so, we will notify the media and voters through a release, on our website and social media,” said Jenkins.

“It’s unfortunate that the compressed filing calendar for presidential candidates and the circumstances of these objections will likely delay our receiving final certifications from the State Board of Elections and affect the opening of voting statewide,” she said. Once final certifications are received, we will move as quickly as possible to finalize ballots, program machines and open for voting.”

Benefit set to help man’s family

A benefit for the family of a man who died Sunday from a rare kidney disease is being planned by family and friends.

A free-will benefit for his wife, Ginger Gonzalez, and family, will be held Tuesday, Feb 16 at the Hoopeston Area High School cafeteria from 4:30-7:30 p.m.

This is the same night as the last home boys’ basketball game which is “Senior Night” and “Pack the Place.”

Chili and potato soup will be served along with grilled cheese sandwiches. Tea, water and lemonade will be available to drink. There will also be a bake sale with lots of homemade goodies.
