Mayor among honored at Community Action Agency dinner

Hoopeston Mayor Bill Crusinberry is among three community leaders who will be recognized for their work in economic development.

Crusinberry, along with Thomas J. Chamberlain, of Iroquois Federal Savings and Loan Association and Louis Mervis, of Mervis Industries, will be recognized at the 51st East Central Illinois Community Action Agency (ECICAA) dinner and business meeting on March 11.

The theme for this year's dinner is "Celebrating 51 Years of Creating Community Sustainability through Economic Development"

Hoopeston is partnered with ECICAA in its plans for Prairie Meadows II, a housing development planned for construction later this year.

A silent auction will be held during the event. Proceeds from it and the dinner will benefit specific Community Action educational initiatives. Auction items and basket themes include health and fitness, golfer's delight, family fun, automotive care and maintenance, along with a variety of culinary treats, beauty and beyond and "Un-Wine."

Curtis Zimmerman, motivational speaker and best-selling author of "Life at Performance Level," will be the keynote presenter.

The event will be held at Turtle Run Golf and Banquet Center, 322 Liberty Lane, Danville. The reception and silent auction will begin at 6 p.m., with the dinner and program from 7-9 p.m.

The gala is open to the public. Tickets are $50 per person or $400 to purchase a table. Cash, check and credit/debit cards are accepted.

Corporate and not-for-profit sponsorship opportunities are available; tickets and sponsorships may be purchased by calling the ECIAAAA at (217) 554-9128, emailing specialevents@comaction.org or stopping by the Administrative Office, located at 56 N. Vermilion Street.

I have seen many public servants come and go through the Vermilion County Courthouse doors in my career. Jacqueline Lacy is one of the best that I have seen, without exception. She is known for being bold, hard working, and smart. Attributes that are essential for a Chief Prosecutor to possess.

Join me in voting Lacy for State's Attorney in the upcoming March Republican Primary.
