Reach out and touch

Dan Sheehan, of rural Hoopeston, uses a touch screen voting machine in Tuesday's primary election. The election was the first time touch machines were used in Grant Township precincts. It was also the first time all Grant voters cast ballots at the McFerren Park Civic Center. In the early hours of voting, election judges said turnout had been pretty steady and that voters seemed to like voting at the civic center.

From the Blotter

Angel Bane, 35, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 12:09 a.m. Monday at Eighth Ave. and Young. Wanted on a Vermilion County warrant for failure to appear, she was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville in lieu of bond.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 5:38 p.m. Monday in the 500 block of West Washington.

Police said Robin D. Thomas, of Hoopeston, backed a 2005 Dodge Durango into a parked 2013 Ford Focus.
