Maple sets Family Night Thursday, Grandparents Day Friday

Maple School will hold it's annual Health and Safety Family Fun Night from 5-6 p.m. Thursday in the school gym.

The event will feature displays and information from several local groups, including Hoopeston emergency services personnel, Hoopeston Public Library, Hoopeston schools, U of I Extension, Carle pediatricians, Gibson Area Hospital and North Vermilion Family Dental.

Free healthy snacks will be served and first aid kits will be given, courtesy of Carle Hoopeston Regional Health Center.

On Friday, the school will hold Grandparents Day, starting at 2 p.m.

Doors open at 1:45 and each grade level will have its own doors for grandparents to enter, with Pre-K, EC and kindergarten coming in the front office doors on Lincoln; first grader, the east door on Fourth St. and second grade the south door on Maple.

Grandparents should go directly to their grandchild's classroom. Those with more than one grandchild should start with the oldest, then take that child with them to the youngest.

With parents' permission, grandparents may sign out their grandchildren and take them home after activities.

Condolences before the contest
 Lady Cornjerkers huddle with members of the Armstrong Potomac softball game Thursday. Armstrong-Potomac players asked the Cornjerkers to meet them in the center of the diamond where they gave Hoopeston Area players a card honoring the memory of Blaze Robinson, a Hoopeston Area student who died March 15. The Lady Cornjerkers went on to win the game, 15-5, bringing their record so far this season to 6-8.
